STEVE ARTAVIA

WEB DEVELOPER

ABOUT ME

I'm driven to contribute fully to a web development team. With my foundational skills in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, PHP, and MySQL, and my strong desire to learn, I'm ready to give my all and become a valuable asset. To further expand my knowledge, I'm currently studying backend development. I'm eager to join a team where I can fully dedicate myself, contribute my utmost effort, and make a significant impact on project success.
